I could be the reason
I could be the one
Now your eyes are open
I see what I've become
Everybody holding on to the rest of their lives
Everybody bleeding just like everybody does

And every time I walk away
I hope you know that
That could be the last time that I see you so
I already miss you (x2)

Now every time I close my eyes
You're all I see
All these happy-ever-after memories
I already miss you (x2)

I can feel it blowing over
There's something in the air
Time is ticking over
But you don't seem to care
Everybody moving on with the rest of their lives
Everybody leaving just like everybody does

Every time I walk away
I hope you know that
That could be the last time that I see you so
I already miss you (x2)

Now every time I close my eyes
You're all I see
All these happy-ever-after memories
I already miss you

Like everybody does (x3)

Just like everybody does (x3)

Like everybody does (x3)

Just like everybody does (x3)

Every time I walk away

I hope you know that

That could be the last time that I see you so

I already miss you (x2)

So every time I close my eyes

You're all I see

Every happy-ever-after memory

I already miss you (x4)

Like everybody does
