"Hands Up"

I can see the sun fading from the skies.
The night has just begun, and everyone unites.
Before the time has come where we can be free.
Free to live as one, as long as we will lead.

So raise your hands up, and live your life tonight.
Now raise your hands up until the morning light.
So raise your hands up and live your life tonight.
Raise your hands up in the sky until the morning light.

Let this fire burn, burn out of control.
All around the world to light up every soul.
Come on, let it shine.
Shine just like a star.
Give yourself a sign to show them who you are.

So raise your hands up and live your life tonight.
Raise your hands up until the morning late.
So raise your hands up and live your life tonight.
Raise your hands up in the sky until the morning light.
