It was never easy for me to live my life without you.
It was never easy for me 'cause you've always told me
what to do.

If only you could see me now, what I became without you!

If only you could see me now, I'm not the same, I'm
better than you!

And I feel the rain is falling down on me, down on me!
And I feel the rain is falling down on me, down on me!
And I feel the rain is falling down on me, down on me!
And I feel the rain is falling down on me, yeah!

And now I feel like such a fool that I approved what you've done to me

And now I feel like such a goof 'cause I knew you were untrue.

If only you could see me now, what I became without
you!

If only you could see me now, I'm not the same, I'm
better than you!

And I feel the rain is falling down on me, down on me!
And I feel the rain is falling down on me, yeah!

And I feel the rain is falling down on me, down on me!
And I feel the rain is falling down on me, down on me!
And I feel... Oh! Yeah! Oh! Rain down on me!
