How come everybody keeps moving but me
How come nobody can see what I see
It's not fair man, they can't leave
Didn't get a chance to feel my disease

Feel my disease, feel my disease
Feel my disease, feel my disease

All these people keep licking my bones
Steal my religion and empty my soul
I have danced with the burning seas
Lord, put me here to spread my disease

Spread my disease, spread my disease
Spread my disease, spread my disease
Spread my disease, spread my disease
Spread my disease

I am feeling, feeling the falling
I am feeling, feeling the falling

Stand in the corner, biding my time
Someday they will all be mine
I have become a vessel of God
Doubt my word and you will rot

You will rot, see you rot, you will rot

Hey there mama, don't be sad
Your little boy has become a man
I have grown to see the light
Suck the daylight in the night

In the night, take away light
In the night, take away light
In the night, take away light
In the night

I am feeling, feeling the falling
I am feeling, feeling the falling

Falling into night

Truth be told man I?m real scared
I crossed the line ?cause I was dared
It?s too late, no turning back
Seen too much and now I?ve cracked

Seen too much and now I?ve cracked
Seen too much, now I?ve cracked
