Hope

lyrics by Michael Stipe

R.E.M.

You want to go out friday and you want to go forever.

You know that it sounds childish that you've dreamt of alligators.

You hope that we are with you and you hope you're recognized.

You want to go forever

you see it in my eyes.

I'm lost in the confusion and it doesn't seem to matter you really don't believe it and you hope it's getting better

You want to trust the doctors their ----- is the best but the last try was a failure and the intern was a mess.

and they did the same to Matthew and he bled til Sunday night they're saying dont be frightened but you're weakened by the sight of it.

You lock into a pattern and you know that its the last ditch you're trying to see through it and it doesnt make sense and you're empty

but they're saying dont by frightened and they're killing alligators and they're hogtied and accepting of the struggle.

You want to trust religion and you know its allegory but the people who are followers have written their own story.

so you look up to the heavens and you hope that its a spaceship and its something srom your childhood you're thinking dont be frightened.

You want to climb the ladder you want to see forever.

you want to go forever.

and you want to cross your dna to cross your dna with something reptile.

and you're questioning the sciences and questioning religion you're looking like an idiot

and you no longer care.
and you want to bridge the schizm, a built-in mechanism to protect you.
and you're looking for salvation and you're looking for deliverance
you're looking like an idiot
and you no longer care.
'cause you want to climb the ladder
