Life is moving by so slowly
I'm tired of waiting for it all
Escaping just before the morning
It seems like the time is here now.

I'm waiting
For a little kiss-and-tell
Baby likes to run like hell
Hoping for a quiet moment
Baby likes to hear them roar for me

I'm waiting

Get all over me

My brains gone down and Christ it's raining
I can't feel anything at all
Won't you stop your fool complaining?
'Cause I can't hear anything at all

I'm waiting
For a little kiss-and-tell
Baby likes to run like hell
Hoping for a quiet moment
Baby likes to hear them roar...

What I mean is
I'm scared
What I'm saying is
I'm scared

The wind's gone out of all my sailing
But I'll jump overboard with you
The happy times are here forever
Or for at least an hour or two

I'm waiting
