So hard when anger's never felt so good
Beauty's only all I want to see
The windows regardless open everything
Funny how we pass them everyday

You're the lady with her calves all ripped up into seams
Your passing by is all I get to see
Lately I fear it's been too much for me
Funny how I pass her everyday

It's just when nothing ever changes
(Drink the wine, it rearranges)
We'll be lying soon
(On Lusitana's moon)
We'll be lying soon

So high when courting comes by in the room
Slavery only not too far away
You and yours are always trying for everything
Funny how I pass you everyday

It's just when nothing ever changes
(Drink the wine, it rearranges)
We'll be lying soon
(On Lusitana's moon)

I find that nothing ever changes
(Just drink the wine to rearrange us)
We'll be crying soon
(In Lusitana's moon)

So hard when anger's never felt so good
And beauty's only all I want to see
The sour Lusitana's ruling everything
Her body always sadly wrappes away

It's just that nothing ever changes
(Drink the wine, it rearranges)
We'll be lying soon
(On Lusitana's moon)

I find that nothing ever changes

(Just drink the wine to rearrange us)
We'll be crying soon
(In Lusitana's moon)

Yeah
Yeah
Yeah
...
