"A Golden Age"

I heard a rumour of a golden age
and the stage is gettin' set
I heard a rumour of a golden age
the stage is gettin' set
I heard a rumour of a golden age in the song, on a screen and printed page And all the world will be a stage
and the stage is gettin' set

I've seen the glow of a golden dawn
and the dawn is comin' through I've seen the glow of a golden dawn
and the dawn is comin' through
I've seen the glow of a golden dawn
and all will wait to gaze upon And though the hour is hard and long the dawn is coming through

I felt the wind behind my heels
and it feels good to me
I felt the wind behind my heels
and it feels good to me
I felt the wind behind my heels
My soul fired up like catherine wheels And I'm never gonna forget how it feels
and it feels good to me

I stood on the side of a shimmering sea
I saw a ship come sailing in
I stood on the side of a shimmering sea
I saw a ship come sailing in
I stood on the side of a shimmering sea
said "Lord, I surrender" and fell on my knees And loving rose in the heart of me And the ship came sailing in

I heard a rumour of a golden age
