"Everlasting Arms"

Lord hold me
in your everlasting arms
Enfold me
in your everlasting arms
Let striving cease
that I may come to rest In perfect peace
renewed and truly blessed

Lord bathe me
in your everlasting light Lord raise me
in your everlasting light
Awake my mind
that I may understand And come to find the truth of who I am

a bird rose on the breeze Then swooped as if to say you too may fly away
with ease

Lord lift me
in your everlasting love Home swiftly
in your everlasting love I'll go to where a temple stands upon a hill
In silence there I'll wait upon your will

Lord lift me
