"Go Find John"

Go find John
Hiding in the backyard
Crying cause his hands hurt
All the thorns
Crying for you to

Go find John
Scattered and bewildered
Swallowed by the dirt there
All alone

CHORUS

Go tell him
I told him
Go tell him
He's welcome to come home
Go tell him
I know him
He's tried and tried and nothing works at all

Go find John
Drunk to kill the pain there
Lying on a strange bed
All the seed
On the ground

Go find John
Floating in the ocean
In her dark apartment
All alone
