I've been in the storm for you
when my horn for you
was reborn for you
I handled a thorn for you
I was torn for you
I was born for you
And here you go leaving me
decieving me
and it's greiving me

I've been in the storm for you
I've performed you you
I was spawned for you
So why can't you love
so why can't you love

I've changed what I wear for you and my hair for you I've said prayers for you
I gave up my share for you I went bare for you and i cared for you And here you go blaming me shaming me
defaming me

I've been in the storm for you
I was shorn for you and reborn for you
So why can't you love
so why can't you love
so why can't you love
And why don't you know
aww, don't you know What will happen
what will happen if you do
