"Love Anyway"

So you crached the plane and there's hell to pay I'm making it plain
I love you anyway

You made a fool
out of me today
I'm breaking the rule
I love you anyway

You threw the blame
what a role to play!
My story's the same
I love you anyway

You dealt the blow and you burst the ball I'm letting you know
I love you most of all

Magic we chase - only to find it comes from a place higher than mind Higher than dust, but only just it hangs on the cusp

I can hear you scream like a branded slave It's only a dream
I love you anyway

You've got a war to wage chief to obey Foe to engage
I love you anyway

You hunker down feeling small Judging the clown
I love you most of all

I picture you with the eye of my mind

a portrait in blue, unravaged by time Beauty undimmed and through your pale skin the beauty within

So you beat the child sent him away Beauty defiled
I love you anyway

You tricked the King cut him where he lay Unthinkable thing
I love you anyway

You held the jewel
and you let it fall Prince of a fool!

Over the wind, under the hill wing upon wing, love over will When the big me meets the big you the things we will do!

I'll make the time
if you name the day
Trouble or shine
I love you anyway

I think of you
as child of clay Whatever you do
I love yo anyway
