You can't spend all your life sittin' on a cloud playing a twelve-string
You can't spend all your life
sittin' on a cloud playing a twelve-string

But you'll make this day again, this lucky, lucky day
again
but it's not just a day again until you touched it

Get yourself a pedal-steel player there's money in the cabaret business Get yourself a pedal-steel player
there's money in the cabaret business
You can't spend all your life
sittin' on a cloud playing a twelve-string
You can't spend all your life
sittin' on a cloud playing a twelve-string

But you'll make this day again, this lucky, lucky day
again

Don't put that song in your album you don't need no sax in the band
Don't put that song in your album
you don't need no sax in the band
Get yourself a pedal-steel player
there's money in the cabaret business
You can't spend all your life
sittin' on a cloud playing a twelve-string

But you'll make this day again, this lucky, lucky day
again
but it's not just a day again until you touched it

Wake up you gotta make a change you gotta dress like one of the Levellers Don't put that song in your album
you don't need no sax in the band
Get yourself a pedal-steel player
there's money in the cabaret business

sittin' on a cloud playing a twelve-string
