I heard the old lie again today
That all is right when the money rains
I saw a couple leaving a store
Their smiles were quick then were there no more

All the precious time a'wasting on porcelain and wine and fine vacations
And all the lovers who've gone awry don't see the rainbow right before their eyes And to the conscience who speaks his mind I wish him luck in these troubled times

And old acquaintance knocked on my door
He said I knew him and that he knew me more He was quick to twist all of my thoughts And made me wonder what was true or not

All the wanting that goes untried dissatisfaction and foolish pride With every striving plan they still can't see they're blinded by the quiet trap of greed And to the righteous wherever you are I wish you peace in these troubled times

Maybe you have closed your eyes to the deceit and incessant lies This ignorance brings deceitful bliss it's to our shame we've come to this I can see how the world has got you down your feet just can't leave the ground Maybe in time we'll see all the good in little things and not focus on what we need The road is turning someone's got to turn it back around

Rain rain go away
Come back again some other day
And money money pour down on me
You bring short laughter for such a small fee
I know you won't last long here Maybe time will tell

And money will disappear Time is passing by
And I don't have enough porcelain and wine
