"Who We Need"

The words don't come to mind to describe how much I owe but You know
You paid it through Your hands

And the pain doesn't come to heart to feel how much I've killed but You've been filled with it. They drove it through Your feet

CHORUS:
And I know
You're the Only One
who we need
who we need

And the song doesn't come to mouth to sing how dead I've been but You've seen It sang out from Your side

The tear doesn't come to eye to say how I feel inside but You died
so I could understand

You are the Only One, the Only One we need
There is only One Way, One Truth, and One Life
You are the Only One who we need and I feel Your name like the soft caress of a Lover's name across my lips
You are the Only One
