Zero, one...

two...

three...

four days without you

eight...

nine...

now we're five times two

now we're five times two

words won't do

words won't do it

(words)

can't stay true

words won't get me through it

get me through it

honey, please...

seize...

me...

I know what I need...

plan...

В...

some security

some security

some security

words won't do

words won't do it

(words)

can't stay true

don't make me prove it

in the heat of the waiting

when I'm starting to starve

I can see what you're saying but I don't hear you at all

words won't do

(words)
you can't stay true
words won't get me through it
don't make me prove it
words won't do
words won't do it
(words)
can't stay true
yeah
