My life, just got grim

My life, on account of him

You had a chance

You could of made it again

Are you really gonna marry her on Halloween Day,
Halloween Day

Your life is torn apart

Beware of her haunted heart

I thought you had a chance

I'd thought you make it again

I never really thought you'd marry her on, Halloween
Day, Halloween Day

And something's spooky in the pit of my heart

And something's stirring in the trunk of my car

My name is itching on the roof of my houses

Don't go out, Don't go out

Don't go out after dark, After dark, After dark

After dark on, Halloween day, Halloween Day

My life, just got grim

My life, on account of him

On account of him

On account of him

On account of him
