I don't believe what you said

I can go anywhere

I can hold my head up

I can breathe in the air

I'm not officially dead

I still have a heart

I'm not officially dead yeah

I still have a heart

Do you remember the times

You'd ride your bike past my house

I wanna know you so bad

Know you inside and out

But you're officially dead

You don't have a heart

You're officially dead yeah

You don't have a heart

See me

Feel me

Touch me

Heal me

So was it easy, just to leave me, just to leave me

For dead?

I know you can't let me go

It's all in your head

You want me back in your arms

Want me back in your bed

We're officially dead

We don't have a heart

We're officially dead yeah

We don't have a heart

We don't have a heart

We don't have a heart

We don't have a heart

WOW!!

Officially dead

We're officially dead

We're officially dead

Officially dead
