Touch, light as a feather

I will wait for you honestly

I am yours entirely

I remember last night's dream Could it be your one of me

I have known your face inside the window

And the force forever in my heart

Like an angels arrow

I remember last night's dream

Could it be your one of me

I've been waiting silently

Will you risk it all with me

Ah ahhh ah (x3)

I have know Your face inside the window

And the force forever in my heart

Like an angels arrow

I remember last night's dream

Could it be your one of me

I've been waiting silently
