Will it ever come like it did for you, like it did for you

I kinda heard you singing

Oh I never knew, no I never knew

My heart skips around when I hear the sound

I'm never alone cause your'e following me home

I'm falling in love my walkman and me

With David Bowie

You betcha

With teenage medication flowing through my veins

I can face the strain and it's causing a sensation

That I can't explain, yeah I can't explain

My heart skips around when I hear the sound

I'm never alone cause you're following me home

I'm falling in love my walkman and me

With David Bowie

You want me to sing I can, I can

You want me to play I can, I can

You wanna be in a band I can

I'll never be anything more than I was today

Than I was today

And will it ever come like it did for you, like it did for you

I kinda heard you singing

Oh I never knew, no I never knew

My heart skips around when I hear the sound

I'm never alone cause you're following me home

I'm falling in love my best friend and me

With David Bowie him and me in a tree i-n-g
