That was a time for falling, I knew you well.

There was no time for calling, me when you fell.

This is a time to take cover, in a wishing well.

Summer was blowing all over me when you fell.

Sailors can take all the breathing out of the sail.

I took a trip when you needed me.

When you fell, waters were driving me

To a deep place I close my eyes to see

Your sweet face a coke inside me,

I slept in hell.

Angels can be so deceiving, when they love you well

Did you think you would be leaving me?

These are some lavender flowers

In a broken shell, I know it's broken

They comfort me ever since the day when you fell.

When you fell, waters were dancing me

In a dark place, I close my eyes to see

Your determined face, my secret inside me

I slept in hell.

This is a time for believing, in fairy tales

One in which you are brought back to me.

Wolf, I cried wolf.

Wolf, I cried wolf.

Wolf, I cried wolf
