"In search of a rose"

Visit "In search of a rose" on MotoLyrics.com

Where will I wander and wonder
Nobody knows
But wherever I'm a-going, I'll go
In search of a rose

Whatever the will of the weather
And whether it shines or snows
Wherever I'm a-going, I'll go
In search of a rose

I don't know where it's found
But I don't mind
As long as the world spins around
I'll take my time

I'll savor the softness of summer
I'll wrap up when winter blows
And wherever I'm a-going, I'll go
In search of a rose
