Once upon a time, a time, a time, a time, a time, a time
I lived here
Once upon a time, a time, a time, a time, a time, a time
I lived here

I lay my head on a pillow of sky and I kiss the wind and heard it sigh

Once upon a time
I lived here
In the fever of a dream, a dream, a dream, a dream, a dream, a dream
I loved here
In the fever of a dream, a dream, a dream, a dream, a dream, a dream
I loved here

Fell, heart and body
soul and mind
I left all over worlds behind
In the fever of a dream
I loved here

The hour has come, its come, its come, its come, its come, its come, its come, its come
to leave here
The hour has come, its come, its come, its come, its
come, its come, its come, its come
to leave here

I'll take whatever is mine to take Free my heart before it breaks
The hour has come to leave here
