Bolt and bar the shutter for the foul winds blow Our minds are at their best this night and I seem to know

That everything outside us is mad as the mist and snow

That everything outside us is mad as the mist and
snow.

Horace there by Homer stands, Plato stands below
Were you and I, lads, mad as the mist and snow??
Were you and I, lads, mad as the mist and snow??

You ask what makes me sigh, what makes me shudder so

I shudder and I sigh to think that even Cicero And many minded Homer were mad as the mist and
snow

That Cicero and Homer were mad as the mist and snow
That Cicero and Homer were mad as the mist and snow
