[Incomprehensible]

I'm gonna suffer for you no longer
I'm gonna suffer for you no more
I'm gonna write you out of my life
And shut the door

I'm gonna suffer for you no longer
I'm gonna suffer for you no more
I'm gonna write you out of my life
And shut the door

You tried to drive a wedge between me and my friends
You pushed me to the edge time and again
I've been livin' in your shade, since I can't remember when
Now I'm bringin' this charade to an end

I'm gonna suffer for you no longer
I'm gonna suffer for you no more
I'm gonna write you out of my life
And shut the door

I'm gonna suffer for you no longer
I'm gonna suffer for you no more
I'm gonna write you out of my life
And shut the door

There was subtlety and skill in your manipulative ways
You chipped away my will so you could make me stay
You soothed me with your voice until I obeyed
But I'm makin' my own choice from today, hey

You used the tongue of love like a boxer uses fists
You contained me like a glove or a creepin' cloak of mist
You guaranteed the stars but there always was a twist
Now I see you as you are, egotist

I'm gonna suffer for you no longer
I'm gonna suffer for you no more
I'm gonna write you out of my life

And shut the door

I'm gonna suffer for you no longer
I'm gonna suffer for you no more
I'm gonna write you out of my life
And shut the door

I've got a ticket in my hand and I must be movin' on
But I want you to understand, from the moment I am gone
I release and let you go, you owe nothin' now to me
I'm not angry anymore, I'm free

I'm gonna suffer for you no longer
I'm gonna suffer for you no more
I'm gonna write you out of my life
And shut the door

I'm gonna suffer for you no longer
I'm gonna suffer for you no more
I'm gonna write you out of my life
And shut the door

And shut the door and shut the door
And shut the door and shut the door
And shut the door and shut the door
And shut the door and shut the door
And shut the door and shut the door
And shut
