here i am
now look what's become of us with a million reasons i don't want to be here any longer than necessary no one told me it is easy but i could not guess it is that hard there'll be enough time to raise your eyebrows there'll be enough time to forget
here i am
now run cause i had enough with a perfect little smile drawn on your perfect little face i won't understand it
but i could not guess to play that part
