I have seen this part of the street
So many times from your window
And it never felt that cold
Yeah, never felt that cold

The people walking down this street
Never appeared to be desperate before
That desperate before

Something is wrong with the way
The cars are driving up and down this street
Looking for a place to stay
Nothing seems to come to rest here
Nothing seems to come to rest here

This place looked like mine
Things like that seem to change with time
With time

I won't try to wake you up
Or knock the door to find out if you're awake
There is no light on in your room
And don't want to know
And don't want to know why

This place looked like mine
Things like that seem to change with time
With time

This place looked like mine
Things like that seem to change with time
With time

I won't try to wake you up
I won't try to wake you up
I won't try to wake you up
I won't try to wake you up

This place looked like mine
Things like that seem to change with time
With time

This place looked like mine
Things like that seem to change with time
With time
