Louise

Louise, why did you come today now,
What have you got to say now,
Oh oh, Louise, Louise

Louise, are you such a strange girl,
You look just like an angel,
Oh oh, Louise, Louise

Why do you always come here,
What are you running from.
I'm captured by your presence,
And now we're all alone!

Louise, are you just a vision
Out on another mission,
Oh, oh, Louise, Louise

I've got to ask a question,
I know you won't refuse;
Are you fact, or fiction?
I've got to know the truth!

Louise, we can live forever,
And always be together,
Oh, oh, Louise, Louise

Louise, you are an angel,
What are you hiding from.
We're just two perfect strangers,
And now we're all alone!

Louise, why ya gotta go now,
Don't leave me on my own now,
Oh oh, Louise, Louise

Louise, why did you come today now,
What have you got to say now,
Oh oh, Louise, Louise

Louise, are you such a strange girl,
You look just like an angel,
Oh oh, Louise, Louise

Louise, are you just a vision,
Out on another mission,
Oh oh, Louise, Louise

Louise, we can live together,
And always be together,
Oh oh, Louise, Louise

Louise, are you just a vision,
Out on another mission,
Oh oh, Louise, Louise

Louise,.. Louise, Louise
