I just can't wait to get out of this place
Been driving me mad since around quarter past eight
Can't wait for the weekend to hit
Now it's Friday I know

I'm gonna be free to know that everything is fine
I'm gonna be free to know I've always got the time
And when the sun is beating right down on my face
I feel alive

It makes such a difference to talk don't you know
Living in silence is not how to be
Speak to me girl make it all go away
And then we can say

We're gonna be free to know that everything is cool
Gonna be free to know skies are always blue
And when I ride with you my troubles disappear
I feel alive

So everyone is different making different plans
And I cannot deny that But I've got a sneaky feeling that you'll be coming with me
And you'll be setting yourself free Cause all the stress it has to go at least for a couple of days
And now I know I'm free to go, the world is the world is a beautiful place

The stars are all aligned good times on my mind
I'm ready I'm waiting I'm gonna be free

Gonna be free to know that everything is fine
Gonna be free to know I've always got the time
When I ride with you my troubles disappear
I feel alive
I'm gonna be free
