I know she knows it's not my fault again
I know she knows she balls'd it up again
I know you know you got it wrong back then
You couldn't see through her and now you're sorry

She didn't know just how it would be Enough is enough so I'll set you free
You were enamored by her charm
You're not the first and you're not the last
You're certainly not the last
And so she acted the victim and acted revenge
The all American girl has caused quite a stir

I know she knows it's not my fault again
I know she knows she balls'd it up again
I know you know you got it wrong back then
You couldn't see through her and now you're sorry

I gave her a chance one chance too many
But understand this I had to know
Incredible love like in the movies
I'll write me a book and you will see
Just how it used to be
I thought that you should call
And then I could forgive ya
The all American girl has caused a stir

I know she knows it's not my fault again
I know she knows she balls'd it up again
I know you know you got it wrong back then
You couldn't see through her and now you're sorry
