I played a show tonight and I wondered who she was
And then I asked her friend and then she told me
She'd just broke up with him
Who would do such a thing

So I spoke to her and she was cute and she made me laugh
And then we said goodbye with numbers
Well I'll see you soon back in town
I'll see you soon back in town

Satday mornings and lemonheads
And breakfast at the restaurant back in town
Satday mornings and lemonheads
And breakfast at the restaurant back in town

I took my eye off the ball in haste for a crazy situation
I know I made the wrong choice cause
She's just what I needed Stupid sometimes

Satday mornings and lemonheads
And dinner at the restaurant back in town
Satday mornings and lemonheads
And dinner at the restaurant back in town

Satday mornings and lemonheads
And sushi at the restaurant back in town
Satday mornings and lemonheads
And sushi at the restaurant back in town

She is such a good girl and I hope she holds a candle still for me
