The change of the leaves and the cold in the air helps me notice
No emotion is final and I'll hear the birds sing my song
So help me out here, cause I'm ready to start a new

To early to say yet but keep the night free
Are you ready for Sundance, moonlight by the pool
In Hollywood canyons or Parisian rues
The best of emotion is coming my way

Thoughts of the road plaque my innocent soul on the journey
Cause I've loved and I've lost and I've risen and fallen without you
And now the corner is turned, the journal adjourned's making progress
So help me out here, cause I'm ready to start a new

To early to say yet but keep the night free
Are you ready for Sundance, moonlight by the pool
In Hollywood canyons or Parisian rues
The best of emotion is coming my way

I'm in love

So where's lady luck when your life just sucks let me tell you She's looking at you with a smile through those steamed up windows
Waiting to hold you, and bless your soul
