Baby woman tiny in stature now, but you heart is a treasure

Little princess come follow behind, now

I am reaching for you Elliana

(Chorus)

God has answered my prayers

Elliana

God will concur my fears

To mother a daughter

To look you in the eye

To know that I did everything to walk with you in life

To give you to Jesus that he will in part

The wisdom that I long for to mother your heart

Elliana

God has answered my prayers

There will be others to lead and to guide, girl

But only one you'll call mother

The honor is all mine to show what a woman's like

I'm so glad your mine

Elliana

(Chorus)

God has answered my prayers

Elliana

God will concur my fears

To mother a daughter

To look you in the eye

To know that I did everything to walk with you in life

To give you to Jesus that he will in part

The wisdom that I long for to mother your heart

Elliana

God has answered my prayers

Oh, the tenderness of God is twirling around in our living room tonight

Oh, lighten up your daddy's eyes

And know that he just wants to freeze you in time

Elliana

God will concur our fears
To care for a daughter
To look in the eye
To know that we did everything to walk with you in life
To give you to Jesus, that he will in part
The wisdom that we long for to love your little heart
Elliana
