[Slug]

I'm sparked, waiting for the dark to hit Cause when the moon gets above my apartment
I catch fits for starting shit I'm smart with it, I give it that special touch when I push it
Cause I'm also a label rep, and I can't allow no bullshit So shush kid, shush baby! Shut your eyes Lay your head back, shed the fear and let the tears crystallize
I wish the flies to land upon your forehead
When I extract the essence from your head and leave your body resting Moorehead I left more dead reputations than HIV kills But for every killing there's a reason and it's not just MC's, man!
I'm watching C-SPAN, waiting for the first state rep
To take the first step, to have to kill off to make this world perfect
Well lets get shit right, right here! Right now! Right away!
Atmosphere motherfucker! If I need to I could fly away I'll grind you and your weak crew into beef stew Serve you with seafood
You can't glide by vision cuz you're see-through

[Spawn]

You need to recognize the size of the atlas You ain't as tall as half this - match this - past what you practice
Obviously you can't fuck with my tactics, you bastard Thats why you breath fast bitch - no need to ask

[Slug]

We dug the fingernails underneath the skin of your scalp, then peeled it Sent your underdeveloped pre-school style on a field trip
Now bite your tongue, this is how the mic gets stung
A whole tree to pick some fruit from, man!
You had to choose the ripest one

[Spawn]

That said it all, it comes from inside, and how you ride the sound wire when it's live and the vibes feelin' right Catchin' the motion given by rhythms when you hit 'em on time
with lines, makin' sure your rhyme soundin' tight Your voice should travel without the babble of the average emcee
so listen please use discretion when you breath sound is vibration, I choose to use it with a vision and then comes the style and precision...

[Slug]

No more longer will we hold your hands Why? Cause you're too damn old Oh yea, the network called They told me to tell ya you've been cancelled
They also said big up for all the support Thanks to your devotion, they now control the world So let your hair down and eat the poison with a tall glass of Tang I'm rising past the bang, with smile I'm flashin' my fangs
I tumble over some, cuz some I don't over stand I got the crowd respond, from now on, I know the plan

[Spawn]

It's the noise it makes, that generates the passion I have It's the void it breaks, that stimulates when mics get grabbed
It takes shape - escapes from these vocal chords I have Atmosphere: music makers from the Rhymesayers lab

[Slug]

Come now, (?) test the giants, when we apply this Vice grips to your eyelids to make you read the fine print
The tyrants that gave you crisis, left you silenced Don't breath a sigh of relief 'till you hear the rescue sirens

[Spawn]

Supreme, be this team, we got this shit on lock Obviously we hit the gear under upscale rocks
So you could knock all you want to but you ain't gettin' in
You could try to crash the door but you ain't gettin' in Nigga, what! My definition is raw, I got you all wishin' I'd fall, so things could get better for y'all but I'm tall, and got game, remain the same for the duration

Area code 6-1-2, my present location...

[Slug]

Atmosphere...embellished with talent and the wisdom not abuse it

Blessed with insight, friends and influences

Thats what keeps us dope, what makes us dope is the surroundings

Inspiration stems from love and stress compounding

Stamina: that is achieved over the course of time in fact, time taught me how to breath, battle, not to court my mind

defined as lyricist - the Atmosphericist makin sure you fear this hit every time you hear this shit

[Spawn] Sound is vibration

[Slug] This sound is taken

[Spawn] Sound is vibration

[Slug] And the ground is shaken

[Spawn] Vibration is sound

[Slug] Yo, we found your replacement

[Spawn] Vibration is sound

[Slug] Now who makes the sound?

[Slug & Spawn] : Now who makes the music/sound?

(fades out)
