My love
I want to be by myself tonight with you
I want to know everything's alright
I need hope, I need love
I need life with you for now
For now

Supposing that I write it in a note tonight
Supposing that you find it by your bedside light
I'm hoping that it finds you A.O.K.
I hope I say it right
My love
My love

With you
I want to know all there is to know about you
I want to know the little things you do
Where you go, when you dream
I need to know you need me
But for now
For now

Supposing that you write it in a note tonight
Supposing that you leave it by my bedside light
I know that it will find me A.O.K.
I know you'll say it right
My love
My love

Supposing that I write it in a note tonight
My love
Supposing that you find it by your bedside light
My love
I'm hoping that it finds you A.O.K.
My love
I hope I say it right
My love

Supposing that you write it in a note tonight
My love
Supposing that you leave it by my bedside light
My love

I know that it will find me A.O.K.
My love
I know you'll say it right
My love
