I looked up at the house on the hill,
There was a woman and a girl,
Or the same person
So it seems

I looked up at the girl, standing there,
She beckoned me to come
With an elegant hand

I don't know why it's a lovely day,
It's getting me down, and it's working my mind over
I don't know why it's a lovely day,
It's pulling me in, it's getting me down

I walked up to the girl, standing there
She smiled with a peaceful smile, and took me
By the hand and led me inside her world,
I looked around, there's nothing I could See in the future for me and so

I don't know why it's a lovely day,
Who's fooling who and who's pulling the wool over
I don't know why it's a lovely day
Show me the reasons and I'll change my mind

It's coming to the point where I can say,
I'll get along fine without you in my head
