If I was a Learjet
With nowhere left to fly
So high above the ground
I'd circle you, circle you

I have a good memory
Of things, I can't let go
Too heavy to set me free
And one of them, one of them was you

If I was a Learjet
If I was a Learjet

I'd fly a thousand miles
Over deserts of sky
Stare out into nothingness
But again and again and again I ask why

Does time remember?
All the other days
They're not gone forever
Not gone away, not gone away

If I was a Learjet
If I was a Learjet

And I know you're home
Down there all alone
You keep me
Just circling, circling

Give me your airport
I need to come down
I've been too high and far away
To bring myself, bring myself around

If I was a Learjet
With one place left to fly
Far above your house
I'd circle you, circle you

If I was a Learjet
If I was a Learjet
A thousand miles away

If I was a Learjet
If I was a Learjet
A thousand miles away

If I was a Learjet
If I was a Learjet
If I was a Learjet
