Used to win, I used to lose
That's one thing you'll never really get used to
But when I leave I'll leave for good
I left no tracks or traces 'cuz no one understood

Now I'm gone
(Won't be back again)
Won't be back again
Now I'm gone
(Won't be back again)
Won't be back again

You make me run, you make me cry
I gave you all I had but you're not satisfied
Drag my name through the mud
You pull me by my cord until I unplug

Now I'm gone
(Won't be back again)
Won't be back again
Now I'm gone
(Won't be back again)
Won't be back again

Now I'm gone
(Won't be back again)
Won't be back again
Now I'm gone
(Won't be back again)
Won't be back again

Now I'm gone
Won't be back again
Gone, gone, gone, gone
(Won't be back again)
Won't be back again
