I am the man, that's what I am
I'm a straight shooter, with a master plan
I am the man, that's why I'm here
I am the man, I am the man

I am the last real cowboy
I roped the soul of the world can I have your lights can I have your mic's
I mean to be heard
I am a radio soldier taking aim at the world mothers and fathers bring your daughters bring your girls, cause

I am the man, that's what I am
I'm a straight shooter, with a master plan
I am the man, that's why I'm here
I am the man, I am the man

truth and honesty
that's my game
I'm gonna make it simple I'm gonna make it plain you're gonna know my face you're gonna know my name my favourite colour my favourite number you're gonna know my pain
it's all in the plan

I am the man, that's what I am
I'm a straight shooter, with a master plan
I am the man, that's why I'm here
I am the man, I am the man
