When the time is right
The party takes a height
Come and let your spirit rise.

The crowd is going wild,
We're gonna sing all night
And bring the yodel back in style.

Start me up and I will never stop.
I'm gonna sing the world around.
If you ask me how, I can show you why.
They'll even sing it in London Town. Yeah! Yeah!

(Refrain)
Yodeling's on the scene,
From Texas to the Piccadilly.
Yodeling's on the scene,
Sing it by the Mississippi.

From the Taj-Mahal to the China Wall
You're gonna hear it's echo loud.
See the mummies dance, samurais romance,
Lose control and "yodel-it-out" Yeah!

Now the time is right
And you've reached a height
Come on and feel your spirit rise.
When the moon is high
We're gonna yodel all through the night! Yeah! Yeah!
