Take a walk with me

Let me show you things no one else can see

Take a walk with me

Where if you're willing anything can be

And then you'll realize you're not alone

Take a walk with me

Feel the Mother's rhythm beating endlessly

Take a walk with me

Hear Her blood that's flowing gently to the sea

And then you'll realize you're not alone

Take a walk with me

Where there's no anger and no jealousy

Take a walk with me

If your mind is open then you will see

And then you'll realize you're not alone

And then you'll realize you're not alone

Just sit back now

Let your mind be free

We'll take a trip somewhere inside

Just you and me

And then we'll fly, we'll fly away

And then we'll fly, we'll fly away

Then you'll never have to be alone

Then we'll never have to be alone
