

Wavorly "Forgive And Forget"

Visit "Forgive And Forget" on MotoLyrics.com

It's certain now you've gone too far

You're finding out the worst about you

The wrong inside runs so thick

How did you let it go on?

Try breathing in, try breathing out

Release the source of all the doubt

How could I choose not to forgive?

With everything you choose to forget

And still we will be loved

It's making sense, the telltale signs

The root of it, the taste so bitter

The source of pain, the jealous grudge

That you allowed in anger
