What I have to say is obvious
And knowledge free,
For all of us are
You're word leaves us with no excuse
The paths we choose make us who we are

There's a breeze blowing through
Here tonight

So I praise and adore you
Lay it all down before you
In every way you're beautiful
From my heart
I praise and adore you
Made the world beautiful
And I cannot sit and deny you created life
And some live without it

Wake up morning sunrise in my eyes
At night the moon lights all the skies
The sound of hope that's in the air
And everything that's everywhere

There's a breeze blowing through
Here tonight

So I praise and adore you
Lay it all down before you
In every way you're beautiful
From my heart
I praise and adore you
Made the world beautiful
And I cannot stand and deny you created life
And some live without it

And it's true
It's for you

So I praise and adore you
Lay it all down before you
In every way you're beautiful
From my heart

And I every breath I take
There's no way
Accident created this place

Praise and adore you
Lay it all down before you
In every way you're beautiful
From my heart
I praise and adore you
Made the world so beautiful
I cannot stand and deny you created life
And some live without it
And some live without it
