As IÃfÃçâ, -Ã™ m building up this house
I wonder what of it will stay
It seems You just take things away
And IÃfÃçâ, -Ã™ ll admit I shouldnÃfÃçâ, -Ã™ t say these things
But I have got to hear from You somehow
Does this have a point to it?
God, I wish I could hear You
You said YouÃfÃçâ, -Ã™ d help me through this I wish You didnÃfÃçâ, -Ã™ t have to

Why did You take this away? I wanted it Show me that there is no need to be afraid
Can I move on now that itÃfÃçâ, -Ã™ s gone?

As I travel down this road
I wonder if I should turn home
All this time IÃfÃçâ, -Ã™ ve felt alone
My head in my hands
Where were You when I was in need?
And I look back to find You chasing me
Sometimes I try and I miss the point of it ItÃfÃçâ, -Ã™ s about time we dieÃfÃçâ, -Ã,Ã!weÃfÃçâ, -Ã™ re not down here for us

As YouÃfÃçâ, -Ã™ re tearing down this house
There is only one thing I can say
IÃfÃçâ, -Ã™ m so glad You take away
And IÃfÃçâ, -Ã™ ll admit things worked out for the good
And itÃfÃçâ, -Ã™ s about time I understood
