"Drag You Down"

If the weekend starts on Wednesday and it lasts till Monday night
Then when Tuesday comes around, you better treat your body right
Or it will drag you down, it will drag you down
It will drag you down, it will drag you down

Yeah, you say you'll have another then another turns to five
So when morning rolls around, you'll be surprised you're still alive
And it will drag you down, it will drag you down

It's just another role that you do, that you do, that you do
It's just another role that you do, that you do It's just another role that you do, that you do, that you
do
It's just another role that you do, that you do

When I ask you for an answer that you say you already gave You can turn into a cancer, that can take you to your grave

do
It's just another role that you do, that you do
It's just another role that you do, that you do, that you
do
It's just another role that you do, that you do

If you're looking for a lover and you find someone you hate
If you stay with them forever, then I guess you've found your fate
And it will drag you down, it will drag you down

do
It's just another role that you do, that you do
It's just another role that you do, that you do, that you
do
It's just another role that you do, that you do
