"I Refuse To Sink"

Visit "I Refuse To Sink" on MotoLyrics.com

When I walk back to my hometown
Where the years passed me by Where all my hopes and all the memories - turned into lies

When I walk back to my hometown
Where the years passed me by
I will search for you to find you
To tell you one last goodbye

And if this here might be
The end of you and me
I just want you to know
That I can't let you go, tonight
X2

'Cause I refuse to sink
Because your words won't bring me down this way
Cause I refuse to sink
Well I am burning, but destiny can't wait

When I walk back to my hometown
Where the years passed me by
I will search for you to find you
To tell you one last goodbye
