ARASHI'S LIFE It's not over Standing here in the pierced future
ARASHI'S FIGHT We won't stop
Until we seize the light with these hands

An unexpected splendid weather forecast, reason being we are abnormal weather (what?) Moving from east to west in a great migration, scattering about this great atmosphere Up, up, rising, ascending into orbit, like a flight through the sky
The clouds are gathering, rain pelts the hardening ground

Rumors are all heresy, completely unfounded; We are able beat that kind of problem, aren't we?
Even the brutish path, if we take it... ah We c-c-can't stop (hi-ha)
In hot pursuit, the turtle overtakes the rabbit, But in this great flood you can't do anything but endure Here, from the heart of Tokyo, continue on to the unparalleled in steps Flap your wings towards the world
Wink from the skies to the ground Everything remains the same Frankly, nothing has been embellished 08ARASICK a reprise; one greeting before setting sail Undeveloped land is cultivated once again, LIGHT UP!
Light the torch, audience!

* Repeat

These five wheels meet again, a wandering samurai
proceeds to holy ground
This story is based on actual history; hide everything,
strong wind
It's a storm (blah), thunder rolls, a bolt of lightning attacks
Here, from the centre of Tokyo, a light begins to shine from the middle of the retreating chaos Another sun rises

It faces everything from the sky to this earth Incidentally, a little pain will attack it
It falls down seven times in order to rise It's still lacking in greed, the great big sea is still choppy 08ARASICK a reprise; LIGHT UP! Light the torch, audience!

Even though the sky is covered with jet black clouds, the sun commands a slight view from a rift in the clouds Sometimes lightning flickers, entirely... it seems like the entire sky is drunk on rejoicing

It's like we're completely shrouded
In the swirl of madness
In a sky I've never seen Words are starting to be lost
The sound of heaven splitting
Is the only thing left in my ears
The sound of heaven splitting

"Face sharpened nails with hidden fangs"

These five wheels meet again, a wandering samurai
This story is based on actual history; hide everything,
strong wind
In hot pursuit, the turtle overtakes the rabbit, But in this
great flood you can't do anything but endure
Continue on to the unparalleled in steps here, TOKYO

* Repeat

The light won't disappear, Delight's song is Ringing incessantly towards tomorrow
The greatest stage starts here

ARASHI'S LIFE Is not over
08ARASICK a reprise; one greeting before setting sail
Face sharpened nails with hidden fangs; Forecasters, bear it with your head hung in shame
