Translation:

You came to me suddenly one day and left just leaving love...
There is no news from you day after day, year after year...
In worry that you will be disappointed in how much I changed as time has passed, I fix my makeup today also...

I have done nothing for you, just took what you gave
me...

that's why I'm sorry, why did you love a girl like me, why you had to leave me, we have to love again
somehow...

If I meet you again during my lifetime, I want to argue with you...

Why did you leave me alone in this hardworking world without sending news about you...

I have done nothing for you, just took what you gave
me...

that's why I'm sorry, why did you love a girl like me, why you had to leave me, we have to love again
somehow...

We were so young back then...

Now I know the love that I didn't know back then, even if it isn't great, come take the love that I left for you, we have to love again somehow....
