I'm so in love with you I just don't know what I should do,
I'll do nothin I'll just dream,
I never seem to get it right,
It seems that I

I don't know how to say goodbye
And if I did I'd surely cry - a lie
If it's a choice between you and me then I'd go for I
And here's why I never really thought that she likes me anyway.

You're playing games with me
It isn't hard for them to see
Tell me that you're just a cheat
But I don't care I play for keeps and I

I don't know how to say goodbye
And if I did I'd surely cry - a lie
If it's a choice between you and me then I'd go for I
And here's why I never really thought that she likes me
anyway.

I'm so in love with you I just don't know what I should
do,
I'll do nothin I'll just dream,
I never seem to get it right,

It seems that I
I don't know how to say goodbye
And if I did I'd surely cry - a lie
If it's a choice between you and me then I'd go for I
And here's why I never really thought that she likes me
