You tell me you want me,
Then we both get in to a fight,
You lay there complaining,
And I know I won't sleep tonight.

You told me that you've been here once before,
You said I made you walk in to a door.

But I can't control myself,
You're making such a fool of me,
Now I've decided we're just friends,
I can't control myself,
You're making such a fool of me,
Now I've decided we're just friends.

You're hurt cos I hit you,
But we know it's only a game,
You tell me we'll make it,
But I know it won't be the same.

You told me that you've been here once before,
You said I made you walk in to a door.

But I can't control myself,
You're making such a fool of me,
Now I've decided we're just friends,
I can't control myself,
You're making such a fool of me,
Now I've decided we're just friends.

You told me that you've been here once before,
You said I made you walk in to a door.

But I can't control myself,
You're making such a fool of me,
Now I've decided we're just friends,
But I can't control myself,
You're making such a fool of me,
Now I've decided we're just friends
